The application process is competitive and subject to the availability of funds. Applicants may not request or receive funding for the same project activities through more than one Commission grant program or grant category.

Applicants are fully responsible for the content of their application packages. DCCAH staff cannot make corrections to applications on behalf of applicants. Incomplete applications may not be forwarded to the Advisory Review Panel for review.

Technical Assistance and Workshops

DCCAH staff members are available to help develop grant applications through group and individual technical assistance. Between July 11th and August 19th, DCCAH will conduct free workshops for participants to learn useful information about the agency's funding opportunities and how to submit a successful grant application. More information about the dates and times of these workshops can be found at Grant Writing Assistance. In addition, DCCAH staff members are available for individual assistance by appointment only. Contact information for the DCCAH staff members is available Who We Are – DCCAH Staff.

Review Process

Applications are reviewed according to detailed evaluation criteria specific to the grant program. These criteria are listed on page 6. A volunteer Advisory Panel is comprised of arts and humanities professionals independent of the Commission. The panel scores applications using the criteria and makes recommendations to the Commission Board. The Commission Board reviews panel recommendations and makes all final funding determinations. Funding decisions are not determined by DCCAH staff.

For more information regarding the grant review process or the Advisory Panelist Nomination form, please visit the Guide to Grants.

The evaluation process will also take into consideration general standards of decency and respect for the diverse beliefs and values of the American public consistent with The National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act, as amended in 1990.

Funding Restrictions

Individuals are not restricted from receiving funds from multiple grant programs, however, organizations have restrictions involving the following three grant programs: Arts Education Program, Festivals and City Arts Projects; and Grants-in-Aid.

DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities

An applicant is not restricted from receiving additional grant awards from any other grant program(s).

Each Fiscal Year, an organization may submit a maximum of two applications through Arts Education Program (AEP), two applications through Festivals and City Arts Projects (FCAP) and one application through Grants In Aid (GIA). The Advisory Review Panel may recommend funding for all five of these applications, however, the applicant may only receive funding for two of these recommended applications. Following Commission Board review, applicants recommended for more than two AEP, FCAP, or GIA awards will be contacted by the Director of Grants and Legislative Affairs in order to determine which two awards the organization will accept. This decision rests entirely with the organization. DCCAHA has no opinion on the organization's choice.

Performance Monitoring

All grant recipients are subject to monitoring requirements in the City-Wide Grants Manual and Sourcebook from the Office of the City Administrator. Activities funded by DCCAH will be monitored and evaluated by staff to assure compliance with all aspects of the District of Columbia's requirements, which may include evaluating allowable costs, meeting project benchmarks, providing proof of expenditures, etc.

DCCAH may monitor grant recipients through the use of interim reports, site visits (including performances and presentations), email correspondence and phone calls. Information and invitations regarding upcoming activities should be provided to the Director of Grants and Legislative Affairs and other pertinent staff on a regular basis.

All grantees must complete a final report by October 15, 2012. Grantees are required to document payment of all expenses paid by grant funds as well as the required match.
