Applicants may submit one East of the River application per grant cycle

FY 2015

East of the River

Organizations may request up to $40,000

Deadline: May 12, 2014 at 6:00pm

East of the River Program Description

The East of the River (EOR) grant provides access to high-quality arts and humanities experiences for DC residents who live east of the Anacostia River. Activities may be programs or projects that include, but are not limited to, dance, design, folk and traditional arts, literature, media arts, music, theater, and visual arts. Funding may be used to support operational and programmatic costs directly related to the East of the River activities described in the application.

Priority will be given to organizations with a principal place of business in Wards 7 or 8.

The East of the River Program does not require matching funds. All funds must be spent within DCCAH's FY2015 (October 1, 2014 to September 30, 2015). The program is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts to increase access for underserved communities.

East of the River Goals

- Provide access to high-quality arts and humanities experiences for residents who live east of the Anacostia River;
- Increase quality of life by supporting a vibrant community identity through the arts and humanities; and
- Stimulate the creative economy located east of the Anacostia River through investments in local artists and arts organizations.

Eligibility Requirements

All organizations must meet all of the following prior to submitting an East of the River application. Applicants must:

- Have their Federal and DC tax exempt status (subject to DCRA verification) in good standing for one year prior to the application deadline;
- Must meet at least one of the following:

- Have a demonstrated commitment to provide arts and humanities programs to the residents of Washington, DC. At least fifty-one percent (51%) of the applicant's scheduled arts activities occur within the District of Columbia;
- Be in good standing with DCCAH. Applicants with incomplete or delinquent reports, in any funding program, as of October 15, 2014, are ineligible to receive an additional award from DCCAH in FY2015;
- Not use fiscal agents; and
- Colleges, universities, service organizations, foreign governments or other DC government agencies, including DC Public Schools, are prohibited from applying for any DCCAH grants.

- Artistic expenses for projects occurring East of the River;
- Overhead and maintenance of buildings located East of the River;
- Materials, supplies and equipment purchases no more than 25% of the award, that are directly related to projects occurring East of the River; and
- Travel directly related to the cost of producing arts programming East of the River.

Examples of unallowable costs for East of the River:

All project expenses must be documented by the grantee within the grant agreement. The grant agreement will not be processed for payment until expenses are reviewed and approved by the grants manager. The grantee is responsible for demonstrating cash expenses in interim and final reports.

Technical Assistance and Workshops

DCCA staff members are available to help develop grant applications through group and individual technical assistance. Between April and May 2014, the DCCA will conduct free workshops for participants to learn useful information about the agency’s funding opportunities and how to submit a grant application. More information about the dates and times of these workshops may be found at www.dcart.dc.gov under Grant Writing Assistance. The DCCA urges all applicants to attend these workshops. In addition, DCCA staff members are available for 30-minute appointments up to one week before the deadline.

Cultural Data Project: Learn the basics of participation in the Cultural Data Project. The CDP New User orientation will walk applicants through the process of completing their Data Profile, applying to participating grantmakers, and generating reports. This orientation is recommended for organizations that are new to the CDP, or as a refresher on using the online system.

For applicants interested in participating in the online Cultural Data Project workshops, please visit CDP <http://www.dcculturaldata.org/news.aspx>.

Grants Writing Clinic: The Humanities Council of Washington DC, a partner of DC Commission on the Arts & Humanities, will conduct a General Grants Writing Clinic for potential applicants. The goal of the workshop is to provide more in-depth assistance and feedback to the applicant’s questions regarding grant proposals, to increase the funding potential of the applicant.

Applicants interested in registering for the Grant Writing Clinic must email Curtis Foy at Curtis.foy2@dc.gov for specific instructions and preparation for the workshop.

Application Process

All of the FY2015 grant program guidelines are available www.dccarts.dc.gov. DCCAHA utilizes an online grant portal. All applicants MUST SUBMIT the application online via the online grant portal by 6:00PM on the deadline date. DCCAHA will not accept mailed, emailed or hand-delivered copies of grant applications.

Grant Application Procedure

1. Review the FY15 Guide to Grants [PDF] and the grant guidelines thoroughly and determine eligibility of the applicant, project and project activities;

2. Go to the Apply for Grants page and select the FY15 Grant Application Portal to register:
 - If the applicant created an account in FY14, the applicant’s FY15 Login Name will be the email address associated with the FY14 application. To reset the password either select “Forgot your password?” or click here. Applicants’ profiles and organization data have been migrated, however FY14 request and award data will not be available in the new portal until later this year;
 - To reference an FY14 application, visit the FY14 Grant Application Portal and log in using the FY14 Login Name and password. Direct any questions to DCCAH at 202.724.5613.
 - If the applicant did not create an account in FY14, the applicant will register as a new user. Direct any questions to DCCAH at 202.724.5613;
3. Once fully registered, applicants should select the desired grant program(s), complete the application questions and budget/budget narrative data, and upload all required documents, supplementary material, and work samples; and
4. Submit the application by 6:00pm on the grant program’s deadline date.

The application process is competitive and subject to the availability of funds. Applicants may not request or receive funding for the same project activities through more than one DC Commission grant program or grant category.

Applicants are fully responsible for the content of their application packages. An automated confirmation of an application’s submission does not guarantee an application’s eligibility nor recommendation for funding by the Advisory Review Panel. DCCAH staff are not permitted to make corrections to applications on behalf of applicants. DCCAH staff will review applications for completeness and contact applicants for any incomplete documents within five business days of the deadline. Applicants are responsible for updating attachments within five business days of DCCAH’s notification. Incomplete applications will not be forwarded to the Advisory Review Panel for consideration.

Review Process

All applications are scored according to four categories: Artistic Content, District Impact & Engagement, Sustainability and Capacity, and Overall. The evaluation criteria are specific to each grant program and listed in each grant program’s guidelines. The application process is competitive and subject to the availability of funds. Applicants may not request or receive funding for the same project activities through more than one Commission grant program or grant category.

Once an application has been successfully submitted, a grant manager will review each submission for eligibility and completeness. Receiving an automated confirmation of the applicant’s submission does not guarantee the application’s eligibility or recommendation for funding.

Applicants are fully responsible for the content of their application packages. Failure to submit mandatory documents will automatically result in disqualification. Incomplete applications will not be forwarded to the Advisory Review Panel for review. DCCAH staff cannot make corrections to applications on behalf of applicants.

DCCAH selects Advisory Review Panelists for each grant program to make funding recommendations to the Commission Board. Advisory Review Panelists are arts and humanities professionals independent of the Commission who ensure that the DCCAH provides programs and services that meet the needs of the District's cultural community. All eligible applications will be forwarded to the Advisory Review Panelists for evaluation and scoring based on the published criteria. Panelists will conduct a thorough review of all applications and convene as group to discuss each application and finalize scores.

The evaluation process will also take into consideration general standards of decency and respect for the diverse beliefs and values of the American public consistent with The National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act, as amended in 1990.

For more information regarding the grant review process please visit the Guide to Grants. To nominate a person to serve on DCCAH's Advisory Review Panels, see DCCAH's FY15 Call for Panelists.

INTERVIEW INFORMATION (OPTIONAL)

Each EOR applicant is invited to present to the Advisory Review Panel to clarify the organization's programs and structure. This is OPTIONAL for each applicant. An applicant must have a CONFIRMED appointment for an interview, which should be scheduled through the grants manager, Curtis Foy at Curtis.foy2@dc.gov. DCCAH will not accept walk-ins. Upon confirmation, applicants will be provided directions on how to prepare for interviews, including what questions may be asked.

Notification and Payment

Applicants will be notified in writing of their application status after October 1, 2014. This notification may consist of a grant package, letter of ineligibility, or letter of denial.

The date of payment disbursement is subject to change depending on the availability of funds. DCCAH works with other DC government agencies to pay grant recipients in a timely manner but DCCAH does not create or distribute payments onsite. To expedite the payment process, DCCAH strongly recommends FY2015 grant recipients register for direct deposit. For more information on direct deposit by completing an Automated Clearing House (ACH) Vendor Payment Enrollment Form. The ACH Form can be found on our website at Managing Grant Award.

DCCAH reserves the right to rescind any and all grant awards for non-compliance with grant guidelines, policies and regulations. FY2015 grantees with unfulfilled reporting, in any funding program, as of October 15, 2014, are ineligible to receive any additional awards from DCCAH.

Risk Management and Performance Monitoring

All grant recipients are subject to risk assessments and monitoring requirements as outlined in the City-Wide Grants Manual and Sourcebook from the Office of the City Administrator (OCA). DCCAH has established standards for grantees in making determinations of demonstrated performance prior to the award of all grants.

All activities funded by DCAH will be monitored and evaluated by staff to assure compliance with all aspects of the District of Columbia's requirements, which may include evaluating allowable costs, meeting project benchmarks, providing proof of expenditures, etc.

All FY15 grant recipients must complete final reports by October 15, 2015. Grantees are required to document payment of all grant related expenses as well as the required match. Interim and final report will be completed through the online portal. Grantees may access the interim and final report pages through the Manage Grant Award page on the DCAH's website. All grantees are responsible for reporting grant awards as income on federal and local tax returns and are strongly encouraged to consult with the tax professionals and the IRS.

DC COMMISSION ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES

ADDENDUM A: WORK SAMPLES AND SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCAH) values and emphasizes artistic excellence in all grant programs within all disciplines. This section contains detailed information on the DCCAH’s requirements and suggestions regarding artistic content.

Artist content is one of several criteria on which an application is reviewed. Other criteria include: District Impact and Engagement, Capacity and Sustainability, Overall and others. Artistic content is demonstrated to the Advisory Review Panel through the applicant’s:

- Section 1 - Work sample;
- Section 2 - Support materials;
- Section 3 - Résumé(s) of key personnel; and
- Section 4 - Assessment and evaluation methods

Of these, the work sample carries the most weight because it must contain the clearest depiction of the applicant’s best work(s) of art. All applicants must submit artistic work samples.

To further assist you in submitting strong artistic content with your application, DCCAH has provided:

- Section 5 – General suggestions from DCCAH staff.

Section 1 - Work Samples

Work samples are a critical to each application and are carefully considered during application review. The DCCAH strongly recommends that applicants pay close attention to the content of work sample submissions.

The guidelines on what to submit within a work sample submission depend on the applicant’s artistic discipline and the nature of the grant request. Applicants must adhere to the work sample requirements below in order to be eligible for consideration.

Work samples must be no more than two years old. Submitting older work samples will make the application ineligible for funding consideration.

Digital images must be numbered to correspond with the Image Identification List. |

Section 2 - Support Materials

Support materials are documents that strengthen the application and provide additional information that directly relates to the grant request. Support materials do not take the place of a work sample! They do, however, reinforce the quality of the applicant's artistic disciplines(s).

Some examples of support materials are:

- Theater/exhibition reviews;
- Letters of recommendation;

- Certificates;
- Sample lesson plans;
- Assessments and evaluations; and
- Awards.

Section 3 - Résumés of Key Personnel

Another way for the Advisory Review Panel to determine the artistic content of each application is to review the résumés of the key artists, administrators, and facilitators involved in the grant activities. The professionals involved in the project determine the capacity of the project and ability for the applicant to effectively create an excellent artistic product and/or experience. Their backgrounds as artists and administrators should be relevant to the project and clearly demonstrated through their professional résumés.

Section 4 – Assessment and Evaluation

Purpose of Assessment & Evaluation

(a) To determine the efficacy of a program – as articulated in the program goals and as required for grant reporting.

(b) To provide evidence to support changes in order to improve the program and its delivery.

Types of Assessment & Evaluation

(a) Qualitative Assessment is often subjective in approach and narrative in nature.

(b) Quantitative Assessment provides empirical data that demonstrates growth in the knowledge, skills, and understandings of the participants.

Assessment & Evaluation Design

There are many ways to assess and evaluate programming including; needs assessments, pre- and post-testing, and formative, observational, and summative assessments that utilize mixed method approaches such as portfolio assessment.

Section 5 - General Suggestions from DCCAH Staff

When creating and preparing Work Samples, Support Materials and Résumés, the DCCAH recommends considering the following:

- Select recent, high quality samples that relate as directly to the application as possible.
- Uploaded pictures should be JPEGs with the resolution of at least 72 dpi
- The file upload limit is 80MB. If your work sample is larger than this, we encourage you to provide a link rather than compromise the quality of the work sample
- Less is more. Oftentimes, adding more than the recommended number of work samples to your application will weaken the application.
- Carefully chosen work samples (pictures, videos, excerpts, etc.) tend to make the biggest impact and create the strongest artistic impression.
- Advisory Review Panelists are required to review each applicant’s work samples; however, they are not guaranteed to review multiple work samples within the same application.
- Each work sample and document must be labeled clearly so that panelists can identify what they are reviewing
- For project-based grants, if you have conducted similar projects in the past two years, include samples of work that illustrate the core mission, theme or impact of those projects.
- Panelists must be able to assess the skill level of the artist(s) involved in the work that will be created, exhibited or taught.

- Digital File Format - All files should be labeled as follows, in the appropriate file extension (jpg, gif, pdf, etc.)
 - Template: Applicant'sLastName.FirstName.Image#.ArtworkTitle.jpg
 - Example – "DaVinci.Leonardo.1.MonaLisa.jpg"

For video submission

- Do not send promotional work samples (e.g., highly-edited booking tapes).
- Do not send dark work samples or samples with poor visibility.

For online materials and website:

- A website is not a sufficient work sample. Only submit a website that is an essential part of the project.
- Provide all passwords or include any necessary information on required to view your work sample such as plug-ins or navigation paths.
- Be sure that the links to websites or online materials are fully functioning and maintained throughout the year. An inoperative link to a website containing your work sample will negatively affect your application. DCCAH is not responsible for any material outside of the online grant portal.

ADDENDUM B: DC CULTURAL DATA PROJECT (DC CDP)

The DC Cultural Data Project is a District-wide, collaborative effort of public and private funders and consists of an online system for collecting and standardizing historical, financial and organizational data. The DC CDP will provide the cultural community with comprehensive data on arts and culture in DC, and enable organizations to view trends in their data, benchmark themselves against peer organizations, and enhance their financial management capacity.

DCCAHA requires organizations to complete the DC CDP to apply to the following programs: Arts Education Program, City Arts Projects, Cultural Facilities Projects, East of the River, Grants-In-Aid, Sister Cities International Arts Grant and UPSTART to complete the DC Cultural Data Project (DC CDP) Data Profile.

The DC CDP Data Profile is an annual requirement completed through the CDP website. The information entered into the Data Profile will be used when an application is created and report materials are submitted for the DCCAHA and other funders.
