General Operating Support for Arts & Humanities Service Organizations

Arts & Humanities Service Organization Definition

- Primary mission to provide specialized support to people or institutions within the arts and humanities
- Functions such as networking, professional development, communication, convening, and various technical or managerial supports.
- Not typically arts producers or presenters, although some organizations supporting historically disenfranchised communities may be actively engaged in delivery and creation.

Service Organization Grant Goals

- Provide deeper, specialized assistance for arts, humanities, and/or arts education organizations and their practitioners to enhance their ability to meet their collective needs;
- Improve the capacity, stability, and effectiveness of individual artists and scholars, small community-based agencies, and large arts and humanities institutions;
- Increase the level of technical and manager supports available to constituencies of small or historically under-resourced organizations and practitioners; and
- Strengthen cohesion and community within the District's arts and humanities ecosystems.

General Operating Support for Arts & Humanities Organizations

General Operating Support Program Overview

- Provides unrestricted funds to non-profit arts, humanities, arts education, and arts & humanities service organizations
- Funding can be used for programs, salaries, maintenance, equipment, or expenses required for an organization to achieve its mission.
- Funding is up to 30% not to exceed $200,000 based upon Form 990 organizational expenses.
- Requires a 1:1 match
- Divided into cohorts by organization type and size

GOS Grant Goals

- Provide access to high-quality arts, humanities and/or arts education services and/or experiences for all District of Columbia residents;
- Stimulate the creative economy through investments in the stabilization and advancement of arts, humanities and/or arts education organizations;
- Enhance the stability, capacity and professional development of arts, humanities and arts education organizations and their practitioners; and,
- Strengthen cohesion and community within the District's arts and humanities ecosystems.

General Operating Support Program Eligibility

- Non-profit Arts, Humanities & Arts Education Organizations
- Have received CAH funding in FY17 or FY18
- Be incorporated in the District of Columbia as a non-foreign entity
- In good standing with DCRA, OTR, IRS, DOES, and CAH
- Headquarters in DC
- 501(c)3 status at least one year prior to the application deadline
- Service Organizations: Have, as a majority of constituents, those eligible for funding by CAH
- Have, as its primary mission, to provide specialized support to people or institutions within the arts and humanities.

Applicants may submit one (1) GOS application each fiscal year

GOS Allowable Costs

- Salaries;
- Programmatic expenses;
- Overhead and maintenance;
- Equipment, materials and supplies directly related to programs and services;
- Consultants; and
- Travel directly related to the cost of producing arts and humanities programming and arts education activities in the District of Columbia.

GOS Unallowable Costs

- Food and beverages;
- Tuition and scholarships;
- Regranting;
- Costs related to fundraisers and special events; and
- Travel not directly related to executing DC-based projects.

Application Process

- Eligible organizations submit one (1) grant application portal, accessible from the CAH website: dcarts.dc.gov
- All applicants must submit applications online by 4:00 PM Eastern Time on March 2, 2018.
- CAH will not accept mailed, emailed or hand-delivered copies of grant applications or components of an application such as a W-9, work sample or emailed PDF of support material.

Application Tips

- Gather common upload elements like W9, work samples, and support materials into one folder. Ensure all attachments are PDFs.
- If video is more than 5 minutes, include start/stop time code
- Do not upload a document with a list of links
- Start DataArts and get familiar with your report
- Print/Download the PDF of application questions. Draft your responses to a Notepad or .txt based application. There is no formatting in the portal.
- Keep a copy of the scoring criteria nearby as you write. Write to the criteria.
- Avoid “grantspeak” and hyperbole, substantiating any questionable claims
- Have someone outside of your discipline read your narrative responses and get their feedback.
- Before the deadline day, copy and paste application responses onto the portal and upload requested materials to ensure submission is complete

Work Samples – Arts, Humanities, Arts Ed. Content

- CAH values and emphasizes arts, humanities, and arts education content in all grant programs within all disciplines.
- Arts, humanities, and arts ed. content is the first of several criteria on which an application is reviewed.
- No work sample may be more than 2 years old. Check the work sample appendix noted on the Guide to Grants.
- Arts, humanities, and arts ed. content is demonstrated to the panel through the applicant's:
 - Work sample;
 - Support materials;
 - Résumé of key personnel

Support Materials & Résumé(s) of Key Personnel

Support Materials

- Documents that strengthen the application and provide additional information that directly relates to the grant request.
- Support materials do not take the place of a work sample!
- Internally produced: up to 3 subscription brochures, curricula, strategic plans, etc.
- Externally produced: up to 3 press clippings, letters of support, reviews, etc.

Résumé(s) of key personnel

- Advisory Review Panel reviews the résumés of the key artists, administrators, and facilitators involved in the grant activities.

District Impact & Engagement: Assessment & Evaluation

Purpose of Assessment & Evaluation

- To determine the efficacy of a program – as articulated in the program goals and as required for grant reporting.
- To provide evidence to support changes in order to improve the program and its delivery.

Types of Assessment & Evaluation

- Qualitative Assessment is often subjective in approach and narrative in nature.
- Quantitative Assessment provides empirical data that demonstrates growth in the knowledge, skills, and understandings of the participants.
