

DC COMMISSION ON THE ARTS & HUMANITIES

VOLUNTEER PANELIST APPLICATION FORM

The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCAH) is seeking advisory review panelists for the FY17 season to perform evaluation and rating of applications, provide comments and score applications in order to recommend recipients of DCCAH awards. Residents of the District of Columbia metropolitan area are encouraged to nominate themselves or their peers to serve as a panelist. Selected panelists will demonstrate expertise through involvement in one or more sectors of the creative economy in the District. Individuals with arts and humanities backgrounds make the strongest candidates (i.e. artists, arts administrators, arts educators, gallery professionals, musicians, curators, art critics, etc.). The DCCAH supports panel diversity in all forms, including, but not limited to: age, race, gender, disabilities, sexual orientation, artistic discipline, location, etc.

Panelists will have several weeks to review applications. DCCAH estimates that a panelist will spend approximately 40 hours reviewing applications on-line before one day of in-person service. All advisory panel meetings will take place at the DCCAH office unless otherwise noted.

Panelists are appointed to one panel per year for a maximum of three consecutive years and do not receive compensation stipends, honorariums and/or travel reimbursement.

Please indicate the DCCAH programs preferred for your panel service during the summer of 2016:
