

The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCA) is seeking advisory review panelists for the FY17 grant season to perform evaluation and rating of funding applications. Panelists are integral to the DCCA's grants process because they review applications, provide comments, and score applications in order to recommend recipients of DCCA grant awards. Residents of the District of Columbia metropolitan area are encouraged to nominate themselves or their peers to serve as a panelist. Selected panelists will demonstrate expertise through involvement in one or more sectors of the creative economy in the District. Individuals with arts and humanities backgrounds make the strongest candidates (i.e. artists, arts administrators, arts educators, gallery professionals, curators, art critics, etc.) The DCCA supports panel diversity in all forms: age, race, gender, disabilities, sexual orientation, artistic discipline, location, etc.

Panelists will have 4-6 weeks to review a maximum of 35 applications. DCCA estimates that a panelist will spend 40 hours reviewing applications on-line before one day of in-person service. All advisory panel meetings will take place at the DCCA office unless otherwise noted.

Panelists are appointed to one panel per year for a maximum of three consecutive years and do not receive compensation, stipends, honorariums and/or travel reimbursement.

Please indicate the DCCA grant programs preferred for panel service during the summer of 2016:
